ROBINETT HISTORY

Samuel Robinett came to what is now Bland County around 1725 from East Tennessee and his mother was a full blooded Cherokee Indian. The Robinett family is of French origin. Samuel was drowned in the Watagua River at Elizabethton, Tennessee while taking a drove of hogs south. His widow married a Dunn and his children were scattered at an early age. (This information was compiled by Mr. Way Penley, a direct descendent.)

A Daniel Robinett married Mary McFarland on January 4, 1786 and it is recorded in court records in Wythe County that 'May 26, 1790 Daniel Robinett was recommended to the Governor as Lieutenant of Wythe County Militia'. 'July 9, 1799 a bridle way was established from Burkes Garden to Michael Robinett's on Walkers Creek'. 'August 8, 1797 Samuel Robinett qualified as Lieutenant in Militia'. A Michael Robinett married Mary Justice, daughter of Daniel Justice, on August 22, 1786. Anne Robinett married James Waddle on January 25, 1786.

A record is listed of a descendent of the first Samuel, Daniel, who was born October 6, 1764 and married Anne Devors who was born November 22, 1774. They were the parents of eleven children from whom a large portion of the Robinetts descended. Anne married a Waddle; Mary married Samuel Harman; Hiram married Rebecca Devors and they lived about a mile west of Bland on the Laurel Road; James (Captain Jim) married Jerusha Newberry and they lived in the Point Pleasant community; Emma married George Steel and their home was on Clear Fork; George Robinett did not marry and lived at the home place; Sophrania lived with George; Margaret married Daniel Waddle, Elizabeth, Leroy and Daniel were the remaining, unmarried children.

George Robinett was one of the six commissioners appointed upon the formation of Bland County for the erection of the court house and to lay off the county into magisterial districts.

THE JUSTICES

John Justice, great grandfather of Mrs. Eugene Davidson, settled on Wolf Creek the latter part of the 18th Cousin Rudolph says Samuel is a son of James. However unless he has a document you'll find land owned by a Samuel (plot end) & he could be his son if I interpreted his info correctly.

MEADOWHILL - 302 Main St., York Springs, PA

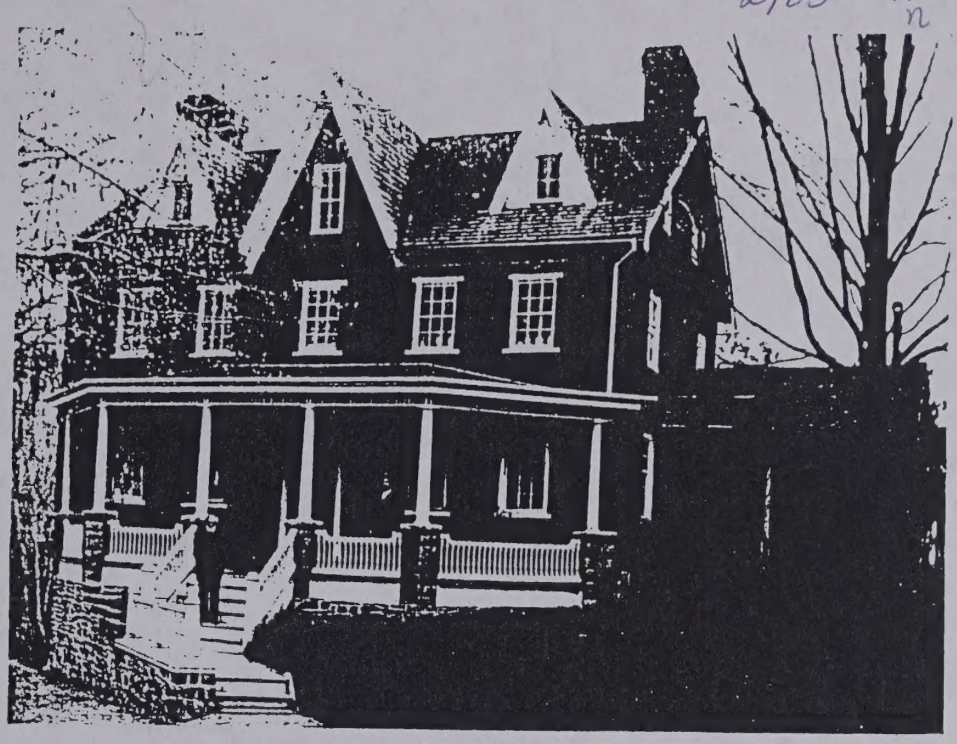
SUNSET MEMORIES

A retrospect of a life lived during the last Seventy-Five years of the Nineteenth Century

1831 - 1901

By

LEONARD MARSDEN GARDNER



"MEADOWHILL"
York Springs (Adams County), Pennsylvania
Residence of the author after his retirement from the Methodist Ministry.

Note: The land on which the "Meadowhill" is located was part of a 297 acre tract surveyed June 4, 1832 by John Dickson, Esq. in issuance a warrant to James Robinette, dated Oct. 6, 1743. The 297 acres included most of present York Springs and extended into Latimore Township. The tract was conveyed to Samuel Robinette, to Vincent Robinett and then divided and conveyed to Richard Pilkington, Nicholas Wierman, Stephen Spikeman and John Fickes. The 40 acre tract where the "Meadow Hill" is located was conveyed to Tomas Stevens, to his only son, John C. Stevens and then in late 1872 or early 1873, to Rev. Leonard M. Gardner. (see sketch)

As told by Rev. Gardner in his "Sunset Memories", page 36 and 37, he was an itinerant preacher and wished to find a place for his retirement years. "on Nov. 2nd, 1872, when we were stationed at Liberty Street Church in Pittsburg. I saw an advertisement of a property in my native town, York Springs, Pa., which my wife and myself had often admired. We concluded to buy it and after negotiating with the parties, made the purchase. It embraced about forty acres of land. It was improved with a large brick house in bad repair, a large barn and other outbuildings".

The Gardner family first occupied the house in the summer of 1874 and maintained it as a summer residence until moving there permanently in 1890. Mr. Gardner built Meadowhill Lake in 1893. Mrs. Gardner died in the front library room March 17, 1899. Mr. Gardner died February 19, 1925.

In more recent times this house has been known by local residents as the Jennie Plank House, 302 Main St., cor. of Main St. & Sawmill Rd., York Springs, Pa..

Dear Roena:

Was happy to have received your letter, 10 Mar '09, on the ROBINETT's. I noticed your handwriting on the address envelope you sent, how strong it is for a lady your age. I'm close behind on age, I'll be 88 in October.

Yes, I've heard about the book on ROBINETT history, but have not been fortunate enough to "lay my hands on one"! I understand they have this book in the library in Millersburg. If I get up that way this summer, I'll stop and check it out. Maybe it will list more children.

I am enclosing my "worksheets" on Allen, Samuel and James ROBINETT, SR., for your information. You will note I have no information on the parents of Margaret SYMM (w/o Allen) and/or Ann MARTIN (w/o James, Sr.). My lineage is thru Elizabeth (ROBINETT) BRANDON, older sister of James, Jr. She was married to Alexander BRANDON. He was the first colonel of the 104th Regiment of the Virginia Militia. He died 17 May 1813, Monomgalia Co., VA. She died 14 Apr 1792, Monongalia Co., VA. (now WV).

No! I'm not into computers---it would be much easier if I were! But I've never held a job where I needed one!!! I retired in 1980 from OSU.

Sincerely:

Robert E. Dunkel

PRELIMINARY HISTORIC RESEACH & PHOTOGRAPHIC RECORD SURVEY

A Preliminary Historic Research effort yielded several critical facts regarding the Old Farm property recently purchased on Lake Meade Road, Latimore County, by Carroll Zentz:

1) In the tracing of deeds back to the first statement regarding deeds recorded on the propery, two deeds refer to the ownership by James Robinette in Oct. 6th, 1743 (See 1843 Deed - James Robinette to George Robinette and 1879 Deed - John and Mary Gardner to William W. Gardner). One deed refers to a previous owner, named Jacob Beales, who was the owner of the property.

" ...being part of a tract surveyed in pursuance of a Warrant granted unto Jacob Beales dated the 29th day of April A.D.1741 - one other part containing and being part of a larger tract which was granted by Warrant bearing date the 6th day of October A.D. 1743, unto a certain James Robinette both by sundry goods and sufficient conveyance became vested in a certain George Robinette, and the residueof the above described tract being part of a tract granted by Letters Patent bearing date the 6th day of November A.D. 1772, unto the said George Robinette as by said Patents enrolled in Patent Book A.A. Vol. 13 page 261 may fully appear."

2) The oldest deeds were only referred to in the above deeds and copies of them were not available in Adams County. However, in the State Archives in Harrisburg, copies of deeds, according to the stated Patent Book, along with the necessary surveyor sketches are possibly on file, since these were "first deeds" - lands given to settlers by Warrants granted by William Penn's family and heirs.

3) Both Jacob Beales and James Robinette held original Warrants from the Penns. James Robinette held the the larger tract. In 1772 George Robinette acquired the lands "...in the thirteen year of the reign of King George the Third." (See 1864 Deed) This was therefore prior to the Revolutionary War.

4) In 1741, the Manor of Maske was also surveyed and granted, the same year that Jacob Beales acquired the property, along Mud Run. Further research would be needed to ascertain if the property was contiguous to the Manor of Maske's northern boundaries.

5) At this time, British subjects comprised the first settlers moving into Penn's Woods (Penn's Sylvania). Mostly Scots, Irish and some English, many were also of the Quaker religion as was Wm. Penn. The oldest portion of the house has "hanging walls". These walls have been documented in early Quaker Meeting Houses.

6) The Amish and Mennonite settlers from Germany and Switzerland came somewhat later (1758).

7) The construction date of the house cannot be accurately stated, since records were not kept of the houses built but only of land ownership. However, research into the 1798 Glass Tax records yielded George Robinette's name. Finding the sketches in the archives may indicate a structure on the "first deeds". The house may be as old as 1740, since time elapsed between application for a Warrant and actual occupation of the chosen site.

8) The land passed to James Robinette's son George in 1772 and then to his sons James and Allen Robinette in 1806.

9) A copy of George Robinette's inventory and administration papers of his estate was also located and is included herewith. It can be seen from the inventory that a well-stocked house existed on the site in 1804.

10) A prime candidate for inclusion on the National Register of Historic Places, the Old Robinette Farm is truly unique, and much of the original structure, particularly the oldest room, with hanging walls and walk-in fireplace is still completely intact.

Dear Ms. Graybeal-Thrane,

This will acknowledge, very tardily, receipt of the research and record survey of one of the old Robinette properties. The date on the survey is August 7.

We have copies of a number of original records pertaining to this property in our collection.

There are a number of items in the survey to which I want to call your attention.

First, there is no Latimore County in this area, perhaps none in Pennsylvania.

Second, the Manor of Maske was not surveyed and granted in 1741. It was not surveyed until 1766. We are presently preparing the most detailed study of the manor ever undertaken. The Robinette property was located quite a distance from its limits.

Third, the Amish and Mennonites came to Pennsylvania from Germany and Siwtzerland long before 1758.

Finally, thank you for sending us the copy. We are pleased to add it to our Robinette family file.

Sincerely yours,

Charles H. Glatfelter

Dear Sue,

Picked up your name and information while checking the "Fickle Surname Message Board".

Mary Fickle is a sister to my ancestor Lt. Benjamin Fickle, 1st PA Flying Camp and later mainly the 7th MD. Regiment, Continental Line. Teir parents are Michael and Margaret (Schleiermacher) Slaymaker Fickle. Michael and Margaret and family left the Pequa Valley and came to the area of York Springs now Adams County, PA.

Mary Fickle married 1st. Samuel Robinett ca 1760, Huntington, twp. York Co.
they had four children; Ann, Daniel, Michael and James.
1762 Samuel was on the tax list in Huntington Twp.
Samuel died ca 1771. His inventory is in Botetourt Co. VA. 1771.
One source says that he drowned in the East Watauga River (Tenn) "while driving hogs south".

Mary married 2nd Thomas Dunn. Mary's mother, Margaret died in 1795 and her will listed daughter as Mary Dunn. Mary and Thomas had 7 children according to one source. Thomas, Jr., John, Rachel, Esther, Elizabeth, Margaret and Mary. Mary (Fickle) Robinette Dunn died in abt. 1826 in Wythe Co. VA in the area now Bland Co. VA.

I have records that records that show Mary had something like sixteen horses and a gensing farm in Wythe County, VA Absalon and Mathias lived near by. Will try to find them.

I live in Adams County, PA and the York Springs area is maybe twenty miles north. Have been to the Robinette Cem. on the Lear Farm.

Which of the Robinette children is your ancestor?

Have not been able to find where Michael and Margaret are buried. Have both their wills. You can find approximately where they lived if you trace Piney creek which begins in Pa and flows into the Monocacy. Michael and children bought parcles of land called Addition to Brooks Discovery, Point Lying, Epping Forest etc.

Wilma Elbeck stated she traced to Gabriel. I have some documents that she might be interested in but do not find her e-m address. Can you provide this?

Have not had time to work on gene this past year but may be able to get back to it soon.

I have gathered info from the net on Thomas Dunn but haven't seen any of the primary sources:
Robert C. Humble says. He emigrated before the Revolution from Ireland to VA. His brother was a lawyer in New York. Thomas Dunn appears in 1782 land & property tax rolls of Montgomery Co. VA He owns 1000 A & acquires more until 1799; 32 horses, 32 cattle in 1782. His wife acquires more in 1802 as he is recorded deceased. He marries circa 1770 to Mary (Fickle) Robinett, widow of Samuel. She has 4 children. They have 7 more. His property is between Walkers Mountain & Walkers Creek & New River in Present day Bland Co.

Allen Robinett

On September 29, 1653, Allen Robinett and Margaret Symm exchanged wedding vows in the Church of St. Mary, Aldermanbury, in London, England. Twenty eight years later Allen purchased land from William Penn and moved Margaret and two of their children to Pennsylvania where he operated a grist mill on Ridley Creek in present day Delaware County, PA. Today, their descendants celebrate with a bi-annual National Gathering at Westminster College, in Fulton, Missouri, which is the new location of the Church of St. Mary, Aldermanbury.

Dear Caroline and Michael,

First let me say, I'm so glad to hear that you are able to get out and enjoy working in your roses. Each time I hear you are doing this and I hear the weather report about the west coast I marvel the difference in the climate of where you live and the areas that are being shown to us on TV. Like yours better.

Received your packet yesterday but haven't spent time with it. Three of us from DAR went to the York County Archives Wed. and it has taken considerable time for me to sort the data. I thought it best to try to get it off to you first. We spent about two hours at the Archives. It's only been open about a year and a half and they are really dedicated to preserving these old yellow and crumbling documents. The rest of the day we spent at the Historical Society Library.

It appears to me that since Allen Robinet, Samuel Robinet, James Robinet and Michael Fickle all have land in the same area by 1746 and from the records I have collected and those from cousin Rudolph the Samuel Robinet who married Mary Fickle would have been the son of one of these. I wonder if Rudolph has a document that says Samuel is the son of James. Otherwise he could be the son of any of the three. Am I interpretting this correctly? These documents from the York Co. Archives have not yet been microfilmed. That's what they're working toward.

I think I will stop here and get this in the mail. I will also send the same material to Rudolph.

The Presbyterian Church in Dillsburg, PA, ecclesiastically known as the "Monaghan Church," derives its name from the township in which it was originally located. Religious services were held here as early as 1737.

The Rev. Samuel Waugh began his labors in 1782. He was a native of Carroll's Tract, in Adams County, PA. He remained pastor of Monaghan Church until his death in 1807. George ROBINETT was a contributing member toward the support of Rev. Waugh during his pastorate. Since George Robinett died in 1804, it is possible that Rev. Waugh conducted his funeral service.

Dear Peggy Senter,

Just recently I began searching for information on a Samuel Robinette that married my ReV. ancestor, Lt. Benjamin Fickle's sister Mary. In so doing I have collected other information on the Robinette family. I am inclosing a work sheet on George Robinette and another document that mentions a John Zeigler. Since it mentions that this John Zeigler is deceased, his will or probate records might indicate whether any of his children went to Ohio. If you can add any further data to the work sheet of George Robinette I would be most grateful. There's an extra work sheet and an SASE in case you have some extra informaiton to share.

Thanks and I would be happy to hear from you in case I run across data that you would be interested in.

Sincerely,

Roena Bayes

Dear Roena,

Thanks for writing.

The John Zeigler whom George Robinette was executor for died in 1799. I believe him to be the father of John Zeigler married to Jane Robinette. John and Jane were no doubt in Tuscarawas Co. OH along with a sister, Eve Zeigler, married to Isaac Deardorff and I believe Henry Zeigler who was in Tuscarawas Co.(my ancestor) was their brother. I have a large bunch of estate papers for John Zeigler from Adams Co. Historical Society. George R. is mentioned a number of times in them. There was a Robinette in Tuscarawas Co OH, but I haven't studied him and can't even find his name.

I don't have much on Robinettes and you probably already know it.

I should have these Zigler families researched more, but I spread myself too far and wide and haven't gotten this done.

I'm pleased to have the info you sent and sorry I don't have more on George. Will keep the work sheet in the event I come across something.

Sincerely,

Dear Caroline and Michael,

First let me say, I'm so glad to hear that you are able to get out and enjoy working in your roses. Each time I hear you are doing this and I hear the weather report about the west coast I marvel the difference in the climate of where you live and the areas that are being shown to us on TV. Like yours better.

Received your packet yesterday but haven't spent time with it. Three of us from DAR went to the York County Archives Wed. and it has taken considerable time for me to sort the data. I thought it best to try to get it off to you first. We spent about two hours at the Archives. It's only been open about a year and a half and they are really dedicated to preserving these old yellow and crumbling documents. The rest of the day we spent at the Historical Society Library.

It appears to me that since Allen Robinet, Samuel Robinet, James Robinet and Michael Fickle all have land in the same area by 1746 and from the records I have collected and those from cousin Rudolph the Samuel Robinet who married Mary Fickle would have been the son of one of these. I wonder if Rudolph has a document that says Samuel is the son of James. Otherwise he could be the son of any of the three. Am I interpretting this correctly? These documents from the York Co. Archives have not yet been microfilmed. That's what they're working toward.

I think I will stop here and get this in the mail. I will also send the same material to Rudolph.

Love,
Reva

Dear Winona,

Sorry to be so long in sending this information. Just not enough hours in a day.

Enclosed are copies of the wills of Michael Fickle and Catherine Fickle. Also a FGS of their family.

The only record we had of Mary was in the will. In her mother's will her married name is listed. DUNN.

Yes, I would like to have the information on Mary Fickle and her husbands and children by both.

I don't know if anyone has traced Michael across the Atlantic as of yet. There is a man by the name of Lawrence Williams, 1307 E. Evergreen St., Mesa, AZ 85203, Phone: 602-969-8609, who has researched all Fickles in Ohio and probably other states. I know he would be interested in hearing from you. He is descended through Mary's sister Naomi. My husband is descended through Benjamin, Mary's brother.

Thanks so much for contacting me.

Sincerely,

Jean

June 15, 1996 Pl:

Dear Caroline,

was pleasantly surprised to receive your letter this week. was looking for mary Robinettes maiden name and found a map of York, Pa. it had next door To James Robinette, A michael Fickle. James Robinette had sold or given his son Samuel Robinette A piece of Land (I believe it was 1760-63. it Adjomed michael Fickle Land. For some time I had heard mary's name was Jordan, Figg & Pigg etc. several names has bee given her. Several people doing genealogy had come up with different names.

Several things had pointed To the name Fickle & we had gotten A List of passengers on a ship & michael Fickle was one of Those passengers. 4 different Robinettes were working on The line & perhaps others, I kept telling them it was Fickle.

Winona & I had corresponded on this mary. then in the map there it was. it was like A light Turned on - Winona was going on A trip To maryland. She found The michael & margaret Fickle wills. Near this time I found A document & it mentioned 14 children I believe & said mary married A Dunn.

Evidently Michael Frickle came over To Philadelphia & met margaret Stoymata (Shiermacher). Both were of German descent. They married Probably in Lancaster Co. Pa. moved To York, Pa. Adjoining Property To James Robinette. Both Samuel & mary were Born Abt 1738-1740. They married 1760-1762. They had 4 children ANN, Daniel, Michael, & James Robinette. In 1771 they were in Botetoort, Co., Virginia & Samuel died. I have done extensive research on where they Came to. On the sale Bill of Samuels Estate The ones who bought his Possessions were Living near Engles Ferry To Near where Fort Chiswell was. Thoma Donn was raised in that Area From About 1760. He lived with John Draper Near Drapers mountain.

mary then shortly After samuel Robinettes death married Thomas Donn. we do not have A marriage date but From The union we know she had 7 more Children. 7 Donns & 4 Robinettes. 11 Children. one Girl & 1 Boy evidently were named After Samuels mother & Father (Ann & James) & one After mary's Father Michael Then The First Donn daughter was named Evidently After mary's mother margaret.

mary I believe had older Brother Gabriel who remained in York, Pa.

Evidently the Younger Brothers & Sisters moved on with Michael Fickle their Father To Maryland.

Mary & Samuel Robinett then had 4 children probably Born in Pa. but we have No Proof. of Course The 7 children From Thomas Donn were born in what is Now Wythe & Pulaski Counties Virginia. Thomas Donn was dead by 1789. Exact Time unknown.

I believe I went To the Farm where Thomas Donn & mary Fickle Lived. No one there knows any history or will not talk. They raised horses & Sold & Bought Ginseng.

Some of mary's Brothers came To Virginia Evidently Abt. The time Margaret Slaymaker (Shoemaker) died. By 1800 2 or 3 possibly even 4 had come down To Virginia- Mathias was one of The others will come To mind soon. Johnathan was Another I believe. one of those Brothers had a Son Named Absolom Fickle. Christiana "There" ____ married William Rader & William died Abt-1800. She was a Widow. Absolom Fickle married Christiana "there" Rader. In 1809 About The time The Thomas Donn Estate was settled, The Robinette children did Not get Any Land From the Estate. James The son of mary Fickle & Samuel Robinette Sold his land on Walkers Creek in Wythe Co- Va. & he and

Absolom Fickle moved To Southwest Virginia - 4 in 1809 that was Lee Co - Va. In 1810 Census they Are both in Lee Co - Va -
Absolom Fickle was Transcribed in some Lists as Absolom Nookle.

Absolom Fickle & his wife Christiana
"Thore" Fickle bought land Adjoining my Grandfather (3or 4th Gr) Aaron John Collier in Turkey Cove Lee Co - Va. I believe The date was (1809).

Last Year I went To Va To Find
where Aaron John Collier & Absolom Fickle Lived. Dryden Va. is Just
A whole in the wall Little Country Village.
No one knew "Turkey Cove" but they
Said that "Loveladdy Gap" was on Top of The mountain. It Appears Loveladdy Gap was possibly the way through The mountains in early 1800's. It was A little more than what I wanted To venture in
The short period of time I had.
I did drive back in The Low back
Country & it is beautiful Area
Evidently on The "Powell River". No
Signs were Available & No people At home -

As You Leave Kingsport, Tn going
North on U-S. Rt. 23 You Cross The Tn - Va. Border. There is A Little Village
Called Fairview. At Fairview I Stopped
& A 4th of July type Celebration was going on. There is a large motel and several Eating places Like Hardees or Shoney's. I had planned To Look For some Cemetaries which I Knew were in the Area. There is a Valley going East & west there. If You Cut off of Rt-23 & Go due west You travel For 3 or 4 miles & You start up a mountain. This mtn. is where Daniel Boones son James was Killed. This road Leads on To Jonesville & Cumberland Gap going on To Kentucky.

From Fairview Evidently The road or A pack trail went Across a huge mountain Known As The Turkey Nob in older days. This is The Area wher Absolom Fickle moved. The Top of The mountain known As "Lovelady Gap." Dryden Va. is on the other side. It would be a wonderful & beautiful trip in A 4 wheel vehicle I would venture To say.

After I had made the trip, I got A package From Jack Robinette of Harshey, Pa. with The Cemetaries of Scott Co. Va. one of those Cemetaries is The Fickle Cemetary.

On A Tenn Valley Authority map I had Found A Fickle Cemetary.

The Fairview Va. To Dryden trail or dirt road whatever crosses The Scott & Lee Co. Line Evidently At Lovelady Gap.

Scott Co. At this Area was Formed From Lee Co. in 1816.

In 1810 of Course All The Area was Lee Co. Va. So The deed would be in Lee Co Courthouse Jonesville, Va. but if what I understand is true that my AA ron Collar Lived in Turkey Cove which is still in Lee County on The North Side of The mountain then Absolom d "There" Frekle If they Continued To Live there Till death Should have been berried on The North Side of Turkey Nob mountain but the Frekle Cemetary is on The South Side of The mountain in Now Scott County.

I Cheaked who was burried there & No Absolom or "There" or Christiana Frekle.

I will have To Look up The Cemetary records but I wanted To Get this off To You A.S.A.P. most of The Names in the Cemetary Are Not Familiar To me. & Are A Generation or 2 From Absolom.

Yes I Agree Pedigree Charts Should be Placed in Libraries & Genealogy Societies. I work in a Library & Am devoted To helping People Find Their Ancestors. my Library was so disorganized & I Am trying To Get All I Can on Computers. I Am A member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints & I Am in Charge of The Library in our meeting house.

So At present we have The I & I Files (updated) & the Ancestral Files both on Computer. we have The S.S. Files Also. At work I have I & I Files on microfish & we have Access To microfilm & we have The G.R.S. C.D. Roms (only 9 At Present). I Am trying To make our Little Library one of The best Sources of Genealogy in The Area. Also in Knoxville we have The L.D.S. Genealogy Library. I just 2 semesters Ago Took Internet & we have Just installed Internet on our Computer in The Library At work. I Am just beginning To Explore The Internet For Genealogy Sources.

You mention Benjamin in Your Ancestor. mary had 11 Children. All of them had The Name of A mother or Father or Brother or Sister of marys or samuels mother or Father. Thoma Dunk Jr. was Named of Course For his Father.

I understand marys Brother was Named Jonathan & She Named one boy John Dunn. not one was Named Benjamin or mathias. or Gabriel but She only had 11 Children. if She had had 3 more sons, they would have been Named Gabriel, Benjamin & mathias. Also there is Possibly one girl Sister's Name left out For I remarked I Knew what She would have Named The next Girl.

C637

In The Back of my mind I get this Picture. Tell me if You Know it to be true or otherwise.

Mary Fickle had older Brother Gabriel who probably remained on the Farm in York, Pa. She Probably married my Ancestor in 1760-1762. Michael & Margaret Fickle Took All or Almost All The rest To Fredrick Co. Md. To Live. Michael was Not really old in 1771 when he died (50-60 yrs) About The same time he died Samuel Robinette died. Samuel was only 30-32 yrs. old.

Now Benjamin Joined "The Flying Circus" or "Flying" Regiment of German Troops in The Maryland Regiment during The rev. War. He was Promoted To Lt. in 1781 I believe. You say he married Rebecca McCullough who died in 1805. Like I say Absolom was The First To move To Lee Co. in 1809 So if Benjamin did Live in Va. it would have been in W & the Co. or nearby. Some way once I thought I had Found that Benjamin may have Come To W & the Co. or Lee Co. but I Cannot remember how that came About. Johnathan Fickle died in The early 1800s in W & the Co. & I know Mathias was there in 1800. His son Mathias married I believe 1821 & Mary his Aunt sold him I believe 100 or 120 or 150 Acres on Walkers Creek.

The Fickles & mary Dunn & The Bogles, Robinettes, etc. All Lived on Littled Big walkers creeks in Now Bland & W & the Co-Va.

When You ask people in that Area About those Names they know the Dunn Name by Dunn motors in Bland Va. Also the Robinettes. Also Bogles & most of the other Names that marys Children married into. Today the Names in the Bland Co. Va Phone Book are the same Names in 1790-1800. But You dont Find - Fickle -

When I Go To walkers creek I Feel Like I've come home. But what happened To the Fickles? I Asked Everywhere Around where they Lived. No one ever heard of Fickles.

I was searching For Fickles & Harmons, & Robinettes & Finally someone told me To Go in A Certain direction. I Found The Robinette Graveyard on A hillside & The house was Falling in. (200 Yrs old?) The People gave me A glass of water & Asked how I like it. I Said, "it is delicious!" They Said my Ancestors drank From the Same Spring. The Boy or Youngman took me To All The Cemeteries ever A Boy or dark. No Fickles.

There were Fickles in the Area but Nobody Knew of Fickles.

Earlier that day I asked a man- He knew Robinettes & had been To a Robinette Funeral. I mentioned Fickle & his face lit up. He said there were "Tickle" families buried on his Farm & pointed on the Hill above him- He said I was welcome To look. It was lightening All Around & I stood in the graveyard Looking At the stones & trying To figure out if Fickle had been changed To Tickle- Lightening was flashing All Around & I was the tallest thing Around. I gave up & Left.

I have studied the records (wills, deeds etc) & I know where they lived but that was 200 years ago. There are some old houses still standing where they lived in the area, 200 years ago. Trees growing that appear To be 200 yrs old Around those old houses. most are beginning To crumble & Fall but you can tell somewhat how they lived-

Several of the people of this Area of W & the Co- ~~Formed~~ in 1789 moved on To Ohio. Ohio was just beginning Aft 1795 To be settled-

Benjamin we know was still in Maryland in 1781 & his mother died Abt 1795. It appears to me that Mark's Brothers came To Va. Probably After or Around 1795.

Benjamin does Not Appear in the Lists of 1795-1800 A new Co. was being Formed Called Tazewell Co. Va- & most of The Fickles & Robinettes sign those Petitions, however mary Lived Just South of there & She did Not sign 1800-1810 Benjamin Could have been in The Area & moved on To Ohio.

It was A thrill To get your Letter. Please if You have information on ANY of The Fickles let me Know About them. No detail is Too small or Unimportant. Also the Slaymaker or Shiermacher Family. I Know so Little of them.

I will be glad To receive ANY information on ANY Robinette, Fickle, Slaymaker, etc. Your Cousin Can Find. I will be more than happy To Share ANY info- I Can Find with Both of You.

By the way I Am Kin To 2 sets of Hall's. one Sisely Hall married my 1765 John Collier on Colliers creek on the James River headwaters and I have Hall ancestors in Kentucky who married My Adams Ancestor.

My thumb is Aching From writing, must get off To bed 3:08 Am.

Sincerely, Your Cousin,

Rudolph

PS- Tell Wilma hello For me & I owe her one.

7 July 1996

Dear Rosa,

I received this long letter from cousin Rudolph. I asked him specifically about the cemetary and if he had ever found Rebecca (McCullough) Tickle or a tombstone or had any info on Benj and Rebecca. I don't look like he knows anything extra but I shall send him a table of contents for Benjy mgt. Mary & Michael Tickle and perhaps a Haymaker. Then he can see if I have anything he wants. I hope he has some new info. for us.

We hope you are doing better and can safely dine and other necessary functions.

Rosa, I think this must be the area for you to research near Fairview near the Tennessee-Virginia border. It sounds similar to Fairfield so that has to be your lucky spot. I hope this info from him is helpful.

Our garden is just fabulous this year. We have had a lot of visitors to see it and they all seemed to enjoy it very much. I like it when people can come and share the pleasure of the garden with us. We look forward to a visit from you sometime.

I wanted to send this in case it would be helpful when you go cemetary hunting. Also, you are more familiar with the geography there so maybe some of this will mean something to you, whereas I could easily miss something.

Now to tackle an answer to cousin Rudolph. I can't that kind of him to sit up until 3:08 A M to answer my letter.

Love Caroline

Backgrounds of Adams County

By [illegible]

No. 149 — Lieutenant George Robinette

IN our survey in Christ (Episcopal) cemetery we have come rather soon, to the much talked-of "stone wall." The few soldiers we have listed are all that we can give for this cemetery. Do not misunderstand—these are the only men, whose graves are marked, for whom records could be found. It is reasonable to suppose that others are buried here, for this cemetery is one of the oldest in the county, but time and vandals have worked their havoc here as well as in other burial grounds. If, at any time, we should obtain additional information it will be given in this column.

At this time we are going to deviate somewhat from our published schedule and visit Leer's (Robinette) private graveyard. This plot must be considered with Christ Episcopal churchyard for the Moorehead and Robinette familiese were members of this congregation. Just why they buried in a private plot of their own on their farm instead of in the church cemetery we do not know, but their family graveyard is still in existence and we continue our survey there.

There are three Revolutionary soldiers buried in this graveyard and the inscriptions from the stones marking the graves of the first soldier and his wife are as follows:—

"George Robinette
Died August 5, 1804
Aged 59 years"

"Agnes Robinette
Died July 10, 1818
Aged 66 years,
4 months and 20 days"

The Robinette family is buried in a small enclosed area within this cemetery proper. We know little or nothing regarding this family, and if any of our readers can add to this data we are about to give, we will appreciate their help. The family is mentioned frequently in the records of Christ Episcopal congregation, but no connecting ties are given. This being the case, we find it necessary to base most of our conjectures on the markers to be found here. The members of the Robinette family buried in the enclosed area are as follows:—

1. "Allen Robinette | born June 13, 1781 | died December 22, 1868.|"

Note: A son, we would judge from the dates of birth and death, of Lieutenant George Robinette, soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Agnes Robinette.

2. Martha Robinette | wife of Allen Robinette | died March 29, 1829 | aged 33 years, 26 days.|"

Note: The wife of Allen Robinette and the daughter-in-law of Lieutenant George Robinette, soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Agnes Robinette.

3. "Deborah | daughter of Allen and Martha Robinette | died January 21, 1824 | aged 2 years.|"

Note: This inscription rather explains itself. Little Deborah Robinette was a granddaughter of Lieutenant George Robinette, soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Agnes Robinette.

4. "Mary | daughter of George and Agnes | Robinette | died January 27, 1811 | aged 25 years, 9 months, 20 days.|"

Note: This inscription also is self explanatory. Mary Robinette was a daughter of Lieutenant George Robinette, soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Agnes Robinette.

5. "James Robinette | died April 25, 1852 | aged 79 years.|"

Note: We believe this man to have been a son of Lieutenant George Robinette, and his wife, Agnes Robinette.

6. "George Robinette | born March 30, 1789 | died February 20, 1871 | aged 81 years.|"

Note: This man was evidently a son of Lieutenant George Robinette, soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Agnes Robinette.

7. "Susan | wife of George Robinette | born December 20, 1803 | died August 20, 1877 | aged 73 years.|"

Note: The wife of George, son of George and Agnes Robinette, and a daughter-in-law of Lieutenant George and Agnes Robinette.

According to the above data we can rather definitely say that Lieutenant George Robinette, soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Agnes Robinette, were the parents of the following children:—

1. James Robinette (1773-1852)
2. Allen Robinette (1781-1868)
3. Mary Robinette (1786-1811)
4. George Robinette (1789-1871)

In addition to the children listed above there was probably a daughter, Ann Robinette, who married Samuel Neely.

During the war of the Revolution George Robinette, on April 5, 1778, was commissioned Lieutenant in the 7th Company (Captain Francis Boner), of the First Battalion of the York County Militia (Pennsylvania Archives—6th Series—Volume 2—Page 425).

Backgrounds of Adams County

No. 150—Private Alexander Sanderson

Aug. 3, 1940

WE continue our survey in the Robenette (Leer's) Graveyard, and the next soldier on our list is one—Alexander Sanderson. The inscription from the markers at the graves of this man and his wife are as follows:

"Alexander Sanderson
died December 27, 1799
Aged 68 years."

"In Memory of
Elizabeth Sanderson /
who departed this life
December 21, 1802
Aged 70 years."

During the war of the Revolution Alexander Sanderson served in 1778, as a private, 6th class, in the Third Battalion of the Cumberland County Militia.

The will of Alexander Sanderson of Huntington Township, Adams County, was proved on January 12, 1801, and is to be found in Will Book "A," Page 55. In this testament our soldier mentions the following members of his family:

1. Wife, Elizabeth Sanderson—"One bed and furniture her choice of all the beds in my house, and one cow, her choice of my cattle, and 120 pounds in currency."
2. Son, John Sanderson.
3. Son, James Sanderson.
4. Daughter, Mary Sanderson intermarried with —? Nesbit.
5. Son, Thomas Sanderson.
6. Son, Samuel Sanderson.
7. Daughter, Elizabeth Sanderson intermarried with Joshua Porter.

A son, John Sanderson, and George Robenette were named executors of this will, while John Bonner, Stephen Tauth, Jr., and Thomas Bonner added their signatures as witnesses.

Only one other member of the Sanderson family is buried in this cemetery. We list the inscription from this marker as follows:

"In memory of / John Sanderson / who departed this life / December 28, 1802 / Aged 42 years./"

Note: John Sanderson was a son of Alexander Sanderson, soldier of the Revolution, and his wife, Elizabeth Sanderson. It will be noticed that, according to the inscriptions, the son John died just eight days after his mother.

Neely

LAST week, in listing the children of Lieutenant George and Agnes Robenette, we mentioned a daughter, Ann Robenette intermarried with Samuel Neely. We think the inscriptions from two additional stones in the Robenette plot of this cemetery proves our point. The inscriptions follow:

1. "George R. / son of Samuel and Ann Neely / died August 17, 1828. / Aged 1 year 1 month and 17 days."

Note: A son of Samuel and Ann (Robenette) Neely, and a grandson of Lieutenant George and Agness Robenette.

2. "Sarah / daughter of Samuel and Ann Neely / died August 28, 1819 / Aged 4 years. /"

Note: A daughter of Samuel and Ann (Robenette) Neely and a granddaughter of Lieutenant George and Agnes Robenette.

THE third and last soldier of the Revolution to be found in this cemetery is one James Moorehead. The inscription from the stones marking the graves of this man and his wife are as follows:

"In Memory of
James Moorehead
died August 4, 1814
Aged 84 years."

"In Memory of Elizabeth
Consort of James Moorhead
who died July 16, 1816
Aged 82 years."

Robert Moorhead and his wife were natives of County Clare, Ireland. They emigrated to America and settled in this section in or prior to 1748. They "took up" 300 acres of land about three miles north of the present town of York Springs near the Carlisle Pike.

James, the son of Robert Moorhead, was born "on the ocean" during the voyage to America. Robert married Elizabeth Fletcher and they were parents of the following children.

1. Robert Moorhead intermarried with Sally Brandon.
2. Edward Moorhead intermarried with Sally Parsel.
3. Fletcher Moorhead intermarried with Sally Livingston.
4. William Moorhead.
5. John Moorhead intermarried with Sarah Morrison.
6. Mary Moorehead.
7. Rebecca Moorhead intermarried with—? Richardson.
8. Elizabeth Moorhead intermarried with William Proctor.

We will continue our notes on this family next week.
